COMIKE

Before anyone gets butthurt over the numerous "inaccuracies" presented in this comic, please take a breath and acknowledge that this is a FICTIONAL webcomic.

Yes, some parts are accurately portrayed, but some parts aren't (many are deliberately off due to trademark issues, etc.) We have the room to "fudge" a little. That's the beauty of fiction.

We appreciate your understanding on this matter, and hope that you can entertain yourself and friends with the "what's different in this picture" beer game at a bar or something. Thank you! :)
